

Bible Study & Teaching Week

All Saints' Church Wingerworth
June 20th to 27th 2010

Sunday 20th 7 – 9 pm

Meals in the Bible – including a 'real' meal with food from the Bible.

Jo White is Rector of the Parish of Wingerworth. She is passionate about enabling people of all ages and styles to be able to connect with the God of the Bible in ways in which they can relate.

Monday 21st 6 to 7pm

Noah's Ark for five to 11-year-olds.

Please come dressed as your favourite animal.

Monday 21st 7.30 pm

Why are the gospels called 'gospels': the complex roots of their origins

Thomas O'Loughlin is Professor of Historical Theology in the University of Nottingham where his work seeks to explore how Christians have come to express their faith in the particular ways they do, and to see how they can draw resources for today from past Christian experience.

Tuesday 22nd 11 am – 1 pm

Feeding the 5000

A special time for the Under 5's & their carers.

Please bring a Teddy Bear & Picnic with you!

Helen Proudfoot is the Derby Diocesan Children's Workers' Adviser.

Tuesday 22nd 7.30 pm

How does the Bible help us when we are suffering?

Led by Michael Thompson, a retired Methodist minister.

Michael has spent most of his ministry working in Methodist Churches whilst maintaining a lively interest in academia, keeping up with Old Testament studies in which he holds a doctorate. He has a number of books on the Old Testament already published: his most recently completed is a work on the Old Testament and suffering Where is the God of justice?: the Old Testament and Suffering.

Wednesday 23rd 7.30 pm

Releasing Our Imagination in the Bible

Michael Mitton is a freelance writer, consultant, trainer, Fresh Expressions Adviser for the Diocese of Derby and Priest-in-Charge St.Paul's Church, Derby.

Thursday 24th 7.30 pm

How the law of the five Books of Moses affects the way we live today and how they are practised.

Rabbi Perez at Nottingham Synagogue. Nottingham Hebrew Congregation, a modern orthodox community

Friday 25th 7.30 pm

Rethinking the Parables

Donald Macdonald is an honorary canon of Derby Cathedral and has served in Derby Diocese since 1979. He is a keen reader of a wide range of theological issues but is particularly interested in atonement, justice and peace issues and the environment and their relation to the Gospels. The focus of his talk will be on some recent 'new thinking' about the interpretation of some of the Parables.

Saturday 26th 7.30 pm

A night of worship

Gaz Simmonds is the worship director at St Thomas' Church, Chesterfield. He will share songs of worship along with testimonies of where the songs came from, many of which are written by himself, as we look to how the bible calls us to worship.

Sunday 7pm – 9 pm

Café:Worship

The Right Rev'd Dr Alastair Redfern, Bishop of Derby

The cost for the Bible Study and Teaching Week is £5 per session or £25 for the week.

Bursaries may be available.

To register contact
Gwyneth Armstrong
on 01246 233951
or email
gramstrong@btopenworld.com